SIXTIETH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF FINE ARTS FOR 1938

To the President and the Governing Members of The Art Institute of Chicago:

THE sudden death on January 11 of Robert B. Harshe, Director of the Institute since 1921 and one of the most respected and loved men in the museum field, was a great blow to our institution as well as to the cause of art in the entire United States. From the Resolutions adopted by the Trustees on January 25 the following may be quoted:

"For seventeen years he labored tirelessly, with never a thought of sparing himself, to make this Institute into a leading art centre, famous both for its collections and its friendly service to the public. Under his leadership our gallery space was much enlarged, and filled with objects of important quality. Under his guidance the cultural and educational activities of the institution were greatly increased. Attendance rose until more people visited Chicago's museum than any other art institution in the country, and the Art Institute led the world in number of members, and its School in number of students.

"In spite of his great natural modesty, Dr. Harshe's name is connected with the most magnificent art events of the last twenty-five years. Unselfish and generous, he always tried to give major credit to his Staff, to his Board of Trustees, and to all who tried to help him. But the world came to know his accomplishments, and in high places he was frequently referred to as the greatest Museum Director of his day.

"Patient in counsel, wise in administration, his knowledge and scholarship commanded our respect, and his application of them evoked our admiration. Deliberate in judgment, Dr. Harshe never tried to impose his will, but dominated by the reasonableness of his leadership.

"Known the world over as a man who had magnificently led the public taste in higher channels, he remained at heart simple, unassuming and wise. He so served his day and generation that Chicago and America owe him a great debt.

"In his dying we have all lost a true and loyal and valiant friend, with qualities of heart we shall not soon forget."

The past year has been an eventful one in the life of the Art Institute. Much reorganization and many changes were necessary. To fill the gap caused by our loss and to give the Trustees time to find a worthy successor, Potter Palmer, President of the Art Institute, was appointed director pro tem on February 2, serving in this capacity until May 10. During the difficult days following Mr. Harshe's death, the Director pro tem met the many problems that arose with great tact and understanding, helping in large part to maintain the morale of the Staff and to carry on the efficient day-by-day functioning of the museum. After considerable study the Trustees decided to divide the responsibilities of directorship and on May 10 appointed Charles H. Burkholder Director of Finance and Operation and Daniel Catton Rich Director of Fine Arts. Mr. Burkholder has long served the Institute in various capacities and at the time of his appointment was Secretary and Business Manager. Under the new plan he retains the former title of Secretary while the business management is merged in the Directorship of Finance and Operation. Mr. Rich, who had previously been associate Curator of Painting and Sculpture, was made Curator of this department as well, a title held by the late Director.

Charles H. Worcester, through action of the Trustees, became Honorary President of the Institute, a recognition not only of the characteristic generosity which Mr. and Mrs. Worcester have shown toward this museum, but even more in realization of his many years of wise and devoted service to the Board. He had served loyally on many of our committees and had been Chairman of several, thus acquiring a wide knowledge of the Institute and its problems not matched perhaps by that of any other Trustee. His broad vision and ability, tempered by calm judgment and personal kindliness, made his selection a most wise and appropriate one. Russell Tyson was named a Vice-President and Thomas E. Donnelley became a member of the Executive Committee.

The Office of Public Relations Counsel was created to meet the many demands in this field which face our institution and Lester B. Bridaham, an able and experienced man, was appointed.

Norman L. Rice, formerly Associate Dean of the School, was made Dean of the School. He is a graduate of this department and has been made thoroughly familiar with its vital needs since he worked closely with Charles Fabens Kelley, former Dean. Under Mr. Kelley's directorship the School was completely reorganized and took rank with the finest institutions of its kind in the world.

In recognition of services in the financial field, Anna I. Brownlee was made Accountant of the Institute.

For other staff changes see the reports of individual departments.

Governing members deceased during the year: Noble Brandon Judah, Henry J. Patten, Samuel Insull, D. F. Kelly, George A. Dixon, John A. Lynch, Mrs. C. T. Boynton and William J. Chalmers. Life members lost to us during the year were 207. Five Sustaining Members also died.

During the year of 1938, the Institute suffered the loss of one of its oldest employees, George Kemmett, who had served the Museum faithfully in the capacity of maintenance man for forty-one years and Miss Geneva I. Willard, Sales Agent for twenty-four years (until 1918). Joseph Fisher, for twenty-two years a night guard at the Institute, likewise passed away.

It is not my intention to detail the activities of the various departments of the Institute. Readers will find these below in a series of special reports. But certain gains and needs must be emphasized. It is gratifying to find that the School's enrollment is at least equal to that of 1937, and that through the bequest of Mrs. Permelia Mellie Manlove Rea her home on West Huron Street is now in use as a dormitory-home for men students. The greatly enlarged enrollment of the Department of Drama is worthy of notice as is also the popularity of the Members' Series of plays and the new Dance Programs of the Goodman Theatre.

The Children's Museum during most of the year was given over to the delightful exhibition of Miniature Rooms, created and lent by Mrs. James Ward Thorne. The Institute wishes to express its appreciation to Mrs. Thorne for allowing us to show her series of models of historic and modern rooms, which proved one of the most popular exhibits held in recent years and for personal and financial aid in making this presentation a success.

The Extension and Membership Lectures, Demonstrations and Classes, have been varied and popular. The Department of Education has increased its functions and the series of free lectures, made possible through the generosity of Miss Florence Dibell Bartlett and delivered in Fullerton Hall by the Head of the Department, continue to draw a large and interested attendance. Ryerson and Burnham Libraries have added significant publications and have served the Staff, Members and an ever-increasing public concerned with art with efficient aid.

The Departments of Prints and Drawings, Oriental Art, and Decorative Arts have benefited particularly through the magnificent bequests of Kate S. Buckingham, as shown in the curatorial reports. Not only do her great collections now become a part of the museum but their maintenance and growth are assured through an extremely generous provision of the donor who bequeathed a special fund for these purposes. In addition, purchases and gifts in the Department of Prints and Drawings and in Oriental Art have carried on the standard of high quality and museum importance; the gift of a large and splendid collection of pewter by Mrs. William O. Goodman to the Department of Decorative Arts likewise should be noted. It is gratifying to report that Robert Allerton, whose generous interest in the same department has long been as notable as it has been diversified and far-sighted, is adding a new wing for decorative arts to the south of the Museum. Now under construction, it will house exhibition galleries embodying the latest museum experience in lighting and arrangement.

Several significant exhibitions have been arranged by the Department of Painting and Sculpture, among them a showing of Paintings, Drawings and Prints by the Two Tiepolos which occasioned wide comment in American and European circles. Gifts and purchases have strengthened sequences in the old master, nineteenth century, and modern fields.

The public, through special newspaper and poster campaigns, has become increasingly aware of the Institute's activities. Attendance at the Forty-Ninth Annual American Exhibition shows that 5,944 more visitors came to this exhibit (lasting forty-seven days) than in 1937 (lasting sixty days) and can be largely explained, I believe, by our new emphasis on publicity.

The account of the Superintendent of Buildings will show at a glance how much exterior repair and interior changes have been carried out during the past season. In addition to the new wing for decorative arts, this year has seen the installation of a much-needed passenger elevator, serving Hutchinson Wing on the ground floor, Gunsaulus Hall on the first and second floors (including the temporary galleries where current exhibitions are held). The crowded condition of the general offices was relieved through a series of shifts in office space, begun under Mr. Palmer as Director pro tem and carried out under his expert and careful supervision. The Membership Department is now housed in new quarters with an attractive reception room to serve our Members. By this move the Lantern Slide Department of the Library was able to expand and the section formerly occupied by the Membership Department was divided into new offices for the Registrar and members of the staff of the Publicity Department. The approach to the general offices has become a much needed and pleasant reception room.

The Superintendent's report stresses the deterioration of the roof of our building. Some of these skylights have been in place for forty-six years and we are faced with continuous and additional expense for replacing sections of our roof in order to protect the works of art below. Only close inspection and maintenance will protect galleries from serious damage.

Finally some of the objectives and pressing needs of the Institute must be listed:

1. MUSEUM EDUCATION. Throughout the world the tremendous role of art museums in public education is being recognized. If the Institute is to perform its true function in the community we should greatly increase our free lectures. The Metropolitan Museum of Art, for example, offers twenty free talks a week; we give one, and that due to the generosity of a single donor, Miss Florence Dibell Bartlett. Our Department of Education, unlike that of other large museums in the United States, is totally without endowment and its activities are seriously limited by having to pay its own way. A fund for education is imperative.

2. STAFF. Though the Institute is able to carry on in the face of shrinking income, most of its past activities (and indeed in certain fields has added new ones) we are still seriously handicapped by the lack of trained museum workers. Assistants in all curatorial departments, docents, trained librarians, and experts are needed if the Art Institute is to make progress in bringing art to the public. New departments with scholarly curators should be created and surveys in new forms of labeling, installation, and display should be carried out by workers familiar with these fields.

3. PURCHASE FUNDS. Chicagoans do not realize that the collections of the Art Institute are largely the gifts of public-spirited citizens rather than purchases made from museum funds. There is an overwhelming need for gifts of money to allow our museum to buy objects of art, not only to carry on certain collections already begun but to initiate new ones. The disturbed condition of the world has thrown many masterpieces on the market, but unless we are able to acquire certain of these great works through purchase they will go elsewhere. The Director of Fine Arts and Curators will be happy to point out such needs and opportunities to prospective donors.

4. PUBLICATIONS. There is constant demand for catalogues, handbooks, picture books (with one or two pages of text and a well selected group of reproductions), and illustrated guides but we have no funds for this purpose. The Institute should strive to publish at least one scholarly work a year and a number of smaller and more popular catalogues. The need for a special Publications Fund is glaringly apparent.

5. ENDOWED PROFESSORSHIPS. That the School of the Institute not only may maintain its present standard of instruction but shall increase in scope, a series of endowed professorships is of first importance. With such endowments the School will be able to attract teachers of strikingly outstanding abilities to Chicago, and the whole curriculum expanded and made more significant. The Director of Fine Arts and the Dean of the School will be happy to discuss particular endowments with donors interested in this plan.

6. EVENING OPENINGS. The Art Institute has been prevented from opening the museum during week-nights by a lack of funds for such maintenance. In London the attendance at the National Gallery was increased a fourth through keeping the building open three nights a week until eight o'clock and evening openings at the Louvre have been conspicuously successful. Enthusiastic reception of the Bartlett Lectures has shown that those employed during the day in Chicago will visit the Institute at night if the opportunity permits.

REPORTS OF THE DEPARTMENTS FOR 1938

PAINTING AND SCULPTURE

THIS Department of the Institute—more than any other—suffered a tremendous loss through Dr. Harshe's death. As Curator of Painting and Sculpture, he had been instrumental in securing for the museum many of its finest works. Gifted with deep understanding and knowledge, a famous and sensitive connoisseur, Mr. Harshe helped to transform the galleries of painting during his curatorship. Not only was the standard of works acquired greatly raised but through encouraging Chicago collectors to buy outstanding examples of old and modern art he indirectly brought notable works to the city, not a few of which have already been given to the Institute. Mr. Harshe was likewise a master of installation. Color and texture of background, lighting and labeling, as well as harmonious arrangement of exhibits, all received his attention, with the result that visitors to the painting galleries are notably impressed with the appearance of our collections.

The year 1938 brings the addition of fifteen paintings, five water colors and three pieces of sculpture. Two delightful American works of the last century, Mary Cassatt's Woman Reading in a Garden and J. Alden Weir's The Two Sisters, the property of the late Mrs. Marshall Field, are the gift of her niece, Mrs. Albert J. Beveridge, the first presented in memory of Mrs. Field, the second in memory of Abby Louise S. Eddy (Mrs. Augustus Eddy). Mrs. Beveridge has likewise lent a group of eighteenth and nineteenth century French paintings from the Field Collection. Mrs. William O. Goodman gave a remarkable portrait by Louis Betts of the late William O. Goodman, long identified with the cultural life of Chicago and this institution in particular. The Friends of American Art presented Walter Shirlaw's Toning of the Bell, an excellent example of this painter's work in genre, on loan at the museum through the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Mark S. Willing. Unusual canvases by two American contemporaries, Alexander Brook and Edward Hopper, were also the gift of the Friends of American Art. The retrospective exhibition of paintings, water colors, pastels and etchings by Robert B. Harshe—since shown with conspicuous success in New York and elsewhere—will be remembered not only for its excellence but for three works by Mr. Harshe which now enter the permanent collection of the museum. Two paintings, Girl with Cigarette and

The Pier at Brighton, were purchased by the Friends of American Art and a water color, Ballet Girl at Window, was the coöperative gift of the Employees of the Art Institute.

Provincetown, a painting by the gifted Chicago artist, the late Pauline Palmer, was received through her bequest; her sister, Miss Mary F. Lenards, presented a second canvas by Mrs. Palmer.

The Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Coburn Collection was increased by two outstanding nineteenth century French paintings: Ribot's The Scullion, a remarkably vivid example of his style, and Boudin's charming Approaching Storm, painted during that period when Boudin was recording the elegant life of the Second Empire at the watering-places of France. To strengthen the sequence of Spanish painting an unusually strong small composition by Murillo, Two Monks in a Landscape, was purchased from the Wentworth Greene Field Memorial Fund.

To the Joseph Winterbotham Collection were added Modigliani's Madam Pompadour and André Derain's Stag Hunt. The former is a witty, strikingly designed "portrait" of a Parisian woman, the latter a recent decoration, large in scale and handsome in tone and painting.

Among the water colors may be mentioned a Nude by Grigory Gluckmann and Mystic Night by Millard Sheets, both of which become the property of the Institute through the Watson F. Blair Prizes in the Seventeenth International Water Color Exhibition. Robert Laurent's Kneeling Figure, a compact and vigorous bronze, was added through the Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Logan Prize in the Forty-Ninth Annual Exhibition of American Paintings and Sculpture. Another notable accession in the field of sculpture is the Monks Reading by Ernst Barlach, a German artist who, recently dead, did much to revive the rugged strength of the Gothic tradition. This example, in bronze, was purchased through the Avery Fund.

Several notable exhibitions were arranged by the Department. Perhaps the most important of these was the Loan Exhibition of Paintings, Drawings and Prints by Giambattista and Giandomenico Tiepolo. Augmented by important loans from Europe and made possible by the coöperation of American museums and collectors, this was the first showing on our side of the Atlantic by these two great Venetian masters of the eighteenth century. Lengthy and complimentary accounts of the exhibition were published in such foreign journals as Pantheon, The Burlington Magazine and The Connoisseur, while the annotated catalogue has been in considerable demand among scholars and libraries.

At the same time the Institute participated in the remarkable Swedish Tercentenary Art Exhibition. This assemblage of the art of Sweden was lent by the Swedish museums and offered a unique survey of crafts and arts from the days of the Vikings to 1900. A distinguished group of Swedish-

Americans from Chicago helped to publicize the exhibit. For the visit of the Crown Prince and Crown Princess of Sweden to our city on Friday, July 15, 1938, a special showing of Swedish paintings, prints, sculpture, and crafts was installed and drew an unusual attendance.

Totally different but of tremendous popularity was the special summer exhibition of 1938, an extensive display done under the Chicago division of the Federal Art Project of the Works Progress Administration. The Art Institute was the first public museum in the United States to arrange an exhibition of this type and not only was the material of great and varied interest but national attention was thereby focused on this valuable Governmental experiment. Its title, "Art for the Public by Chicago Artists," suggested the significant part that the project has come to play in the life of our community.

The Winter Exhibitions (December 15, 1938-January 15, 1939) stressed the paintings and prints of Bonnard and Vuillard with important loans from American and European sources. At the same time was shown a splendid group of paintings and drawings by three Romantic painters of early nineteenth century France: Gros, Géricault, and Delacroix, lent by the French museums and private collectors. A retrospective of works by George Grosz, architecture by Ludwig Miës van der Rohe, Old Master Drawings lent by Sir Robert Witt of London and a special exhibition, The Christmas Story in Art, completed a varied calendar.

ORIENTAL ART

THROUGH the magnificent bequests of Miss Kate S. Buckingham, the Oriental Department now becomes one of the outstanding Oriental collections of the country. So rich indeed are these bequests, that a large proportion of this report must be given to a summary list of the many objects which had been on loan here for a number of years. Though one-half interest in the Clarence Buckingham Collection already belonged to the museum through the bequest of Miss Lucy Maud Buckingham (who left as well a considerable number of bronzes, pottery and porcelains) the entire collection now becomes the property of the Art Institute. Miss Buckingham had constantly added to both collections. The two chief divisions are the Clarence Buckingham Collection of Japanese Prints, second in importance among Japanese Print collections of the world, and the Lucy Maud Buckingham Collection of Chinese bronzes, mentioned whenever Chinese bronzes of high quality are discussed. Either of these collections would be sufficient to make the year a most memorable one, but in other fields such as Han pottery and Chinese sculpture her gifts are notable.

Miss Buckingham's death occurred after the Annual Report for 1937 was completed, and was therefore mentioned therein, only in passing, but the members of the Oriental staff wish to take this occasion to deplore the loss of an understanding and sympathetic friend, whose active joy in collecting was a constant help and inspiration. Although her collections will go on, we shall all miss her stimulus and inspiration, her personal criticism and encouragement, her exultation in the acquisition of something truly fine. We are glad to have had the privilege of initiating a lecture series as a memorial to Miss Buckingham with four lectures on Japanese Prints by Miss Helen Gunsaulus, Assistant Curator.

As usual the chairman of the Oriental committee, Russell Tyson, has made generous loans to the department, and also, among other gifts, has presented a superb jade covered bowl and stand of the Ch'ien Lung Period. The Orientals have added a fine Shang bronze ting to the list of their gifts, and other friends have been likewise generous.

Due to the constantly growing interest in Oriental art, the Department has been increasingly busy each year. Ninety-nine objects were brought in for examination, nineteen visitors wished special information, seven came to see objects in storage, twenty to study objects or installation in galleries, and fourteen to see Buckingham Japanese prints not on exhibition. The Assistant Curator, Miss Gunsaulus, inaugurated two print study groups, each of which met weekly for fourteen weeks. The morning group averaged twelve, and the afternoon group, six. This work was so successful that it will be continued next year. In addition to those named above, fourteen visitors wished to examine or purchase photographs, and there were forty-five other special visitors, the most notable being the Crown Prince of Sweden, himself a famous Orientalist, who spent an afternoon in our galleries expertly appraising our treasures.

Our department had the honor of presenting the first of the Collectors' Exhibitions which are to be, it is hoped, of frequent occurrence. Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Dunham generously permitted us to show their fine Chinese porcelains of the late Ming and Ch'ing Dynasties, and Mr. Tyson showed earlier potteries, Ming porcelains, and three superb Ch'ien Lung jades. We should not fail to mention two loan exhibitions of great importance; first eighty jades of exquisite quality dating from the Shang to the Ming Dynasties from the Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sonnenschein Collection, and second a collection of fifty-one fan prints by Hiroshige, lent by Mr. Charles H. Chandler.

Through the generosity of a friend of the Art Institute we were given the services, for a three months' period, of a trained assistant, who made it possible for us to finish preliminary studies (begun three years ago) for an illustrated publication of the motifs stamped upon the Buckingham Han terra cotta tiles (over two hundred were found). Continuing the record of the last several years, our photographing and cataloguing of objects is up to date. We have written two Bulletin articles and have furnished two Masterpieces of the Month. A lecture on Pre-Buddhistic Art of China and Indo-China and its Influence in the Pacific by Dr. R. F. von Heine-Geldern was sponsored by The Orientals, and two performances of Chinese Shadow plays by the Red Gate Shadow Players were jointly sponsored by the Friends of China and The Orientals.

The greatest weakness in our department continues to be Oriental painting, particularly Chinese and Japanese painting prior to the eighteenth century. Oriental paintings have not been collected in Chicago, and, as their cost is comparable to works of similar merit in the European field, we have made little progress, but it is noteworthy that Miss Buckingham's last addition to her collection was a fine Sung landscape. She was becoming increasingly convinced of the necessity for finding paintings of high quality. May we hope that others will take up the quest.

We continue to be asked for loans by other museums, and in many cases are able to assist them. Some of our objects will be sent to the Golden Gate Exposition at San Francisco, and one Chinese bronze was included in the loan exhibition of bronzes at the Metropolitan Museum. We have also lent Japanese screens to the Toledo Museum of Art and a pottery mould of the Sung Dynasty to the Brooklyn Museum.

PRINTS AND DRAWINGS

THE most important acquisition of the year was the Clarence Buckingham Collection of 684 prints and six drawings which came through the bequests of Miss Lucy Maud Buckingham (d. 1920) and Miss Kate S. Buckingham. It included many fine impressions and rare prints by masters of the fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries, among them: Master of the Nuremberg Passion, Master E S, Schongauer, Dürer, Lucas van Leyden, Cranach, Master M Z, Duvet, and Holbein. There were also ninety-two Rembrandt etchings, the complete iconography of van Dyck and large groups of Meryon, Haden, Whistler, Cameron, and McBey.

Through the bequest of Mr. and Mrs. Martin A. Ryerson, a fifteenth century manuscript and six prints were added to their collection. An important gift was the Battle of the Naked Men by Antonio Pollaiuolo from the Herbert F. Perkins Collection, the gift of Mrs. Perkins. Mr. and Mrs. Emil Eitel presented a collection of thirty-one prints by contemporary German artists.

The gift of $1000 for the purchase of prints, from an anonymous donor, was most gratefully received.

The purchases include many prints of fine quality as additions to the following collections: Clarence Buckingham Collection: Miss Farren by Bartolozzi; Shepherd and Old Warrior by Domenico Campagnola; Ganymede by Giulio Campagnola; The Promenade and the Hercules by Dürer; Landscape with a Fortress and Landscape with a Church and Covered Bridge by Hirschvogel; St. George and the Princess by Lucas van Leyden; Tree of Jesse by van Meckenem; Abraham's Sacrifice by Rembrandt, and four etchings by Samuel Palmer. John H. Wrenn Memorial Collection: Christ on the Cross by Hans Baldung (Grün); two woodcuts from the Life of the Virgin by Dürer; The Golf Player and the Woman Bathing her Feet in a Brook by Rembrandt. William McC. McKee Memorial Collection: Alcon of Crete by Johann Wechtlin; four etchings by Rodolphe Bresdin, and eight English mezzotints of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries. Charles Deering Collection: the very beautiful pencil drawing of L'Ingénieur Mallet by J. A. D. Ingres which was exhibited during the month of September in Gallery 5 as the Masterpiece of the Month; two etchings by Goya; Christ Disputing with the Doctors by Dürer; Boy with the Sword by Manet, and Circular Design with Saturn by the Master I S. Albert H. Wolf Memorial Collection: Midnight in Venice by Muirhead Bone; Evening Under the Lamp by Mary Cassatt; Portrait of Renoir by Desboutin; Seated Nude by Despiau; Portrait of Vollard by Dufy; The Philosopher by Fechin; Launds by F. L. Griggs; Tuileries Gardens by Vuillard, and Shanty Town by R. Stephens Wright. Joseph Brooks Fair Collection: Nathalie Wolkonska by Degas; Penance of St. Chrysostom by Dürer; three etchings by Giandomenico Tiepolo, and the mezzotint portrait of George Morland by William Ward.

Other purchases include prints by the Master E S, Holbein, Beham, Callot, Bosse, Carrière, Renoir, Daumier, Delacroix, Hollar, and Winslow Homer. The number of gifts for the year amounted to 904 prints, twenty-one drawings, one manuscript, one book and a portfolio of caricatures; the number of purchases, 248 prints, one drawing and one book.

The conversion of Gallery 18 into a much needed workroom has made it possible to assemble the annual international exhibitions with greater facility and has given space for more efficient care of prints and drawings.

Extensive research is being done on the print and drawing collections whenever opportunity permits. Catalogues are being revised constantly and new catalogues of the large collection of reproductions, both of prints and drawings, are being compiled, thus making prints more accessible for students. Explanatory comments pertaining to the exhibition are written for wall labels when each new exhibition is installed. During the year, 1,034 prints and drawings were matted and about 600 mats lettered by hand.

Besides the Fifth International Exhibition of Etching and Engraving, the Department has assembled and installed eleven exhibitions in the Print Galleries and collaborated with the Department of Painting in the Special Exhibition of Swedish Art arranged in honor of the visit of Crown Prince Gustaf Adolf, Crown Princess Louise and Prince Bertil of Sweden.

Prints and drawings were lent for exhibition as follows: 95 aquatints by Goya to the Dallas Museum of Fine Arts; sixteen drawings to the Colorado Springs Art Center and three English manuscripts to Carnegie Institute.

Miss Parker gave seven lectures in the Print Galleries, and a number of prints have been lent for her talks outside of the galleries. Mr. Watson and his assistants gave seven talks and Miss Stanton one in the Galleries. Miss Anna Wangemann gave two talks in the Print Study Room to her special group.

Prints for an exhibition from the collection of Herbert F. Perkins were very kindly lent by Mrs. Perkins.

The Department is most grateful to Mr. Potter Palmer for his continued generosity in permitting us to borrow from his collection at any time and to Mrs. James Ward Thorne for lending three English aquatints for exhibition.

The time and effort Dr. Ulrich Middeldorf has given to reclassifying and rearranging the Leonora Hall Gurley Memorial Collection of Drawings is acknowledged with grateful appreciation. Thanks are also due to Miss Marie Swift for her work as a Volunteer Assistant in the Department for more than a year. Three articles have been written for the Bulletin and one for an outside publication.

DECORATIVE ARTS

THE year has been eventful for our Department owing to the importance and number of gifts and bequests, the varied exhibitions, the service to Members, together with the cataloguing and photographing of the many accessions.

Of outstanding significance is the munificent gift of Robert Allerton, a wing to house Decorative Arts, which has been added to the Museum on the South. It is now partly complete but will take another year to finish and install. This building is to contain exhibition galleries and storage space, and will be accessible through the present Decorative Arts galleries. The bequest of Miss Kate S. Buckingham is particularly noteworthy. Her collection of Gothic material including architectural elements, sculpture, tapestry, and furniture now becomes entirely the museum's property.

The number of gifts for the year total 1,205, the most important being a bronze and enamel crucifix, French, thirteenth century, an eighty-four piece Chinese Lowestoft dinner service and an eighteenth century French chest of drawers, the gift of Mrs. E. Crane Chadbourne; 381 pieces of European and American pewter dating from the sixteenth to the nineteenth century, from Mrs. William O. Goodman, among which a crucifix dated "1567" by Melchior Koch and a French chrismatory of the sixteenth century are notable; and from Mr. and Mrs. Potter Palmer, a carved marble relief of the Roman School, mid-fifteenth century. The Howard Van Doren Shaw Memorial Collection has been enriched by the addition of four English doors coming from Norfolk House, Mollington Hall, Douglas Castle and the Adelphi Terrace.

The largest and most popular event of the year was the Victorian Centenary Exhibition held under the auspices of The Antiquarian Society in five galleries of the Allerton Wing, for four weeks of January 20 to February 28. For this exhibition the attendance reached 14,124.

CHILDREN'S MUSEUM

THE exhibition of Architectural Models in Miniature by Mrs. James Ward Thorne, planned for six months and opening October 1, 1937, was continued for six months longer and closed on October 3, 1938, after a most gratifying success. The total attendance during the year was 74,289. Perfection of workmanship and authenticity of period details roused the enthusiasm of all who came.

After necessary repairs and redecoration the Children's Museum reopened on December 1 with a new type of educational exhibit which we hope to be able to present more often in the future. Called "The Making of a Masterpiece," this is an explanatory exhibition of the six panels showing scenes from the life of St. John the Baptist by Giovanni di Paolo of Siena, in the Mr. and Mrs. Martin A. Ryerson Collection. Two of the actual paintings were borrowed from Gallery 43 and installed in the Children's Museum together with a reconstruction in photographs of the original arrangement of the wings of the altarpiece from which the panels came. Photographs of architecture, sculpture, and paintings which may have influenced Giovanni di Paolo in his compositions, detailed analyses of one of the panels, and exhibits showing in careful detail the steps of the tempera technique in which the artist worked are also included. We are grateful to Miss Kathleen Blackshear of the History of Art Department of the Art Institute School for her coöperation in preparing the analyses and to the same department for lending panels demonstrating the technique.

During the school year of 1937-1938 the Curator conducted forty-seven groups of children from the Chicago Public Schools on tours of the Art Institute collections with a total attendance of 1,907.

The free talks for children given on Saturday mornings consisted during the winter of twelve tours of our own collections with an average attendance of twelve; and during the fall of a series of illustrated talks called "Great Periods of Art History Interpreted for Children" with an average attendance of eighty. This increase in attendance is probably due to the fine coöperation of the Saturday Junior Department of the Art Institute School who sent out announcements with all their catalogues.

Twelve tours for the children of Members conducted on Saturdays at noon during the winter term were attended by an average of twenty-four.

Other activities of the Curator include three gallery tours for the Members, and three lectures and two tours given in the Department of Education. Also thirty-seven lectures on the History of Art at the Junior Colleges of Chicago in the Humanities and Fine Arts Courses.

The Curator has assisted in the preparation and installation of the Masterpiece of the Month and has written one article for the Art Institute Bulletin.

HELEN F. MACKENZIE

Curator of the Children's Museum

EXHIBITIONS

Architectural Models in Miniature by Mrs. James Ward Thorne, October 1, 1937—October 3, 1938; The Making of a Masterpiece, an Exhibition Explaining an Altarpiece by Giovanni di Paolo of Siena, December 1, 1938—March 6, 1939.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

IN its work as an interpreter to the public of the collections of the Art Institute, the Department of Education has encountered a desire on the part of many persons to consider the history of art in orderly and consistent fashion. To meet this need, the Survey of Art course was given in both day and evening sessions, and attracted a good attendance. The short, informal talks in the galleries at the noon hour have proved popular, and through them a considerable number of persons are gaining an intimate knowledge of the Institute's collections. Also given at the noon hour for busy people are travel talks which stress the art of the countries visited.

These lectures have had unusually large attendance. Gallery lectures on the current exhibitions, conducted tours for clubs, college students, and various organizations made up most of the other activities for adults.

The Florence Dibell Bartlett lectures on "Adventures in the Arts," given free in Fullerton Hall to capacity houses during the third year of this series, are apparently answering a definite need in the civic life of Chicago. Miss Bartlett again gave $1000 to carry on this work.

Miss Parker also gave a number of extra-mural lectures to organizations in Chicago and other cities, including lectures on the History of Art at the Junior Colleges of Chicago, in the Humanities and Fine Arts Courses.

The work with children has shown considerable increase over 1937. More suburban and private schools are arranging for museum visits than at any time since the depression.

The evaluation of the year's activities of an educational department is not to be summed up in a statistical report. An increase in attendance may indicate progress in some directions, but the real worth of the work, the extent to which it is increasing appreciation and knowledge, cannot be charted. The expressions of appreciation from those attending, for broadened outlooks and richer reactions to works of art, and their continued attendance over months and years are the truest measures of the value of the department.

In December of 1938 Miss Helen Barsaloux resigned her position as assistant in the Department of Education to be married. For twelve years Miss Barsaloux had been associated with the department, first as a volunteer worker and then as an instructor. Her work with private and suburban schools interested hundreds of children in the Art Institute, and she gave valuable assistance in interpreting the collections to adult visitors. It is with regret that this department accepted Miss Barsaloux's resignation.

MEMBERSHIP AND EXTENSION LECTURER'S DEPARTMENT

DURING 1938 the attendance at the Membership Lectures of the Art Institute has reached a new record—the total for the year being 68,928,—which is higher than the attendance of Members at the lectures during the Century of Progress years. The weekly program for the year has followed the established plan.

The "Clinic of Good Taste"—a series of lectures and demonstrations on home decoration in Fullerton Hall on Monday afternoons—has been repeated Monday evenings with an almost equal attendance of men and women. The same procedure has been followed in the Friday evening lectures on "Art Through Travel," which were repeated Sunday afternoons. These last have proved to be the most popular development of the year's program. With the addition of a modern moving picture machine and perfected projectors for the new kodachrome slides, the art and life of European countries, Mexico, South America, and the Pacific Islands have been shown. These programs have had an additional popular note in a musical correlation produced by means of modern electrical transcription.

The Friday afternoon lectures on the Understanding and the Enjoyment of the Arts have been devoted largely to the analysis of the modern schools of art least understood—beginning with Realism, then Impressionism, Post-Impressionism, Futurism, Cubism, Expressionism, and Surrealism.

Gallery Tours on Tuesday noons, preceding the Scammon Lecture Course, have been on the Permanent Collections. Friday noon Gallery Talks on current exhibitions have been repeated Friday evenings—preceding the Travel Lectures.

Adult Sketch Classes for Members have had the largest attendance in the ten years of the classes. The Monday evening class at 6:00 o'clock has been of particular interest to men. The Friday morning class at 10:00 o'clock was largely attended by women. In both classes models were posed on Fullerton Hall stage; boards, paper, and charcoal were supplied at cost; sketching to train observation and expression was taught. Drawings were marked and graded, and homework problems assigned.

A Juvenile Lecture-Demonstration class, conducted for Children of Members and meeting Saturdays at 1:15 o'clock, has shown marked development in the creative originality of the child this year. A shorthand system of marking makes it possible to give direct criticism to all.

In addition, a high school scholarship class on Monday afternoons and a grade school scholarship class Saturday mornings brought more than 1500 from the Chicago public schools every month to Fullerton Hall for practical lessons in the enjoyment and practice of the Fine Arts. These children's classes, under the James Nelson and Anna Louise Raymond Lecture Fund for Children of Members and of Public Schools, is probably the most extensive and important work being done by the Department. The marked improvement this year was gratifying; a veritable Renaissance of art seems to be sweeping the juvenile world. Under the Raymond Fund lecture demonstrations were supplied to assemblies in thirty-six public schools. These lecture courses, classes, and art clinics were given to the Members from January to mid-May and from mid-September to mid-December. The Friday morning Sketch Class was continued through June, July, and August, and a special summer sketch class for children of Members was held each Tuesday morning for 12 weeks. Painting demonstrations by distinguished artists, lectures by visiting authorities, and noonday gallery tours were each given once a month during the summer. Twelve teas have been given by the Members to exhibiting artists and other persons of interest in the art world on Friday afternoons in the Mather Tea Room, the Club Room, or McKinlock Court.

During the year Miss Butterwick has added some 300 hand-colored slides to the collection of the Department. Mr. Watson has produced 4,000 feet of kodachrome 16 mm. moving picture film abroad and some 2,000—35 mm. kodachrome slides in Europe and in Mexico.

George Buehr has had a leave of absence for six months for study and painting abroad; most of his time was spent in Dalmatia. During his absence Mr. Myron Winder has been particularly effective in teaching the sketch classes.

SCHOOL

THE friendly competition presented by recently formed college art departments, small private art schools, government-sponsored art classes, and private studio instruction has to some degree resulted from the effectiveness of our training, as well as from the greatly expanded interest in art activities generally. In a recent survey it was discovered that thirty-three colleges have inaugurated art departments, and eighty-seven art schools of varying size have been established in the United States since 1926. This total includes forty-eight institutions within the area from which most of our students are drawn, and does not include the multitude of private classes and government-sponsored classes which have recently been formed. This tendency would appear to indicate a clear course for the School of the Art Institute: the formulation of a policy of growth based on quality of instruction, higher professional standards, and institutional prestige rather than dependence on past numerical supremacy, as a sufficient basis for future calculations. It is quite probable that the School's numerical growth has passed its zenith, and the future demands qualitative rather than quantitative control.

In meeting the best institutional standards for the proper guidance and assistance of students, the School has made very definite progress during the past three years. The work of our Personnel Officer has been extended into the professional lives of students through services rendered by the Placement Secretary and the School Office, which operates as a Teachers' Employment Bureau.

The first move toward solution of student housing problems was made possible by the bequest of Mrs. Permelia Mellie Manlove Rea, through which the property at 17 W. Huron St. was made available for student occupancy. In addition to its use as a residence, the house has become a meeting place for student organizations and informal groups, and has already demonstrated its value to the School. Another coöperative housing enterprise for Art Institute students has worked effectively for several years. Both residences mentioned are for men. The need for low-cost living facilities, especially for woman students, is still very acute.

To meet the constantly growing demands of an active educational plan, the School needs assistance in the realization of the following objectives: the endowment of professorships, the maintenance, renewal and increase of technical equipment, especially equipment used by photography, dress design, and industrial design students, the inauguration of a faculty retirement plan, and the development of adequate student welfare facilities.

For some time certain instructors have discussed plans for a visual museum through which the education of younger students could be immeasurably simplified. Students under the National Youth Administration grants have worked to build up demonstration exhibits of ceramic processes and painting techniques—materials which have continuous educational value. With no space available for suitable installation, the growth of the museum plan is difficult.

The School, recognizing its responsibility in a large museum plan, has built its program to conserve professional objectives in its classes and at the same time to supplement the work of liberal arts colleges in the development of well-informed and technically able students.

For several years past the School has drawn increasingly on colleges and universities for its supply of new material. This has led to the expansion of our degree program, and has brought about increased coöperative effort involving other educational institutions of high standing. At present no less than seventy-seven students are following degree programs in the School. An additional group including recent graduates, numbering 290, have degree applications on file and are working toward the completion of academic requirements. As a direct result of this educational process, recent graduates of the School are rapidly gaining prestige, not only as painters, sculptors, and designers, but in college faculty and administrative posts, as directors of new municipal and private galleries, and in many related fields.

The School wishes to acknowledge the helpful coöperation of all museum departments, particularly the Libraries. Relations with other educational institutions remain cordial, and there is ample evidence of benefit accruing through collaborative effort.

A recapitulation of the School's activities during 1938 reveals progress in the direction of academic and professional development and student welfare. It is more difficult to demonstrate progress in the solution of problems involving faculty salaries and retirement, equipment of new classes, and maintenance of satisfactory operating conditions in the older studios of the School.

THE GOODMAN THEATRE

THE report for the School of Dramatic Arts falls naturally into two divisions—since the department exercises two overlapping, though somewhat distinct, functions, those of school and of theatre.

The School of Dramatic Arts may well be described as flourishing. There has been an unusually large registration increase (almost 20%) in September, 1938, over September, 1937. This increase necessitated an augmentation of the Staff. Besides some junior instructors, we have been fortunate enough to acquire the services of Howard Wicks as Production Manager (September, 1937); and Virginia Opsvig as Costume Designer (September, 1938). Mr. Wicks, prior to joining the Staff of the Goodman, served as Technician for the New York Theatre Guild. Miss Opsvig comes from the Cornish School in Seattle. These additions contribute especially to the development of the Scene and Costume Departments.

The function of the department as a theatre serving principally the Membership of the Art Institute has markedly increased in scope. In the Members' Series there were eight productions during 1937-38. The average attendance per production was 5,500—the total approximately 44,000. Four plays were produced during the season in the Children's Theatre, but without a marked increase in attendance. In October of 1938 the Theatre inaugurated the Members' Dance Series. The first recital was given on three successive nights. The entire theatre was sold out for each of these nights, auguring well for the new venture.

The business report appended to the annual report indicates a very satisfactory financial condition. The first quarter of the school year 1938-39 promises a like situation for this school year. This condition enabled the Theatre, with the consent of the Board of Trustees, to clean the theatre building, to make certain minor but necessary alterations; and to set aside a sum of $2,500 toward the building of a shop for the construction of scenery and properties.

RYERSON AND BURNHAM LIBRARIES

THE late Mr. and Mrs. Martin A. Ryerson continue to be the chief benefactors of the Library; from their estate nearly 400 volumes were received, and more than 300 came from Miss Kate S. Buckingham's.

Mrs. Wentworth Greene Field's gift of nearly 13,000 postcards, pamphlets and other items relating to European architecture and localities adds much to the value of the reference files. A set of rare volumes illustrating Chinese decorated letter papers, "Peiping Tsienp'u," was the gift of the Hon. Charles E. Crane.

Ward Jackson has added nearly 100 volumes covering the history of furniture in Europe and the United States, as well as other volumes dealing with social backgrounds, the science of color, and aesthetics. Such gifts, carefully selected to strengthen a particular subject, are of special value.

Among other donors of important books were Charles H. Worcester, Mrs. H. S. Gladwin, the Hon. Carter H. Harrison, Henry Field, Alfred E. Hamill, Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Brewster, Robert Allerton and the family of the late Dr. Harshe.

The Slide and Photograph Department also received valuable accessions from Wayne and Robert Andrews, from Brookgreen Gardens, and from Dudley Crafts Watson.

Thanks are due for generous loans and assistance from the Newberry Library, the John Crerar Library, the University of Chicago and University of Illinois Libraries, and from the Library of Congress, also to the numerous museums, both foreign and American, from which catalogues and other publications have been received.

Requests by telephone, in person or by letter, indicate the value of the Library to specialists and to the general public. A few examples indicate the wide range of information sought. A Chicagoan who had looked in vain at the Royal Institute of British Architects for the floor plan of the Tower of the Infantas in the Alhambra easily found it in the Burnham Library. A magazine devoted to dogs wanted an illustration of the greyhound of Francis II. Another sought a model of sheep as used in Greek and Byzantine art for a design in staging "The Idyls" of Theocritus. Department stores consulted material on historic interiors in connection with various exhibits. Chimney construction since 1837, methods of theatre seating in the United States and in Europe, the planning of highway intersections, a fifth century mead hall, and similar questions come to the Architectural Library.

The Architectural School of Armour Institute under the direction of Professor Miës van der Rohe, encourages systematic use of the Burnham Library; the varied demands of the changed curriculum give added proof of the scope and excellence of its collections.

There is a steady increase in demands made by classes from Northwestern University, the University of Chicago, and by many public and private schools. Architectural firms and local publishers frequently call for assistance. The staff of the Art Institute is constantly drawing upon the Library in the preparation of catalogues and of exhibitions.

Through the Junior League, Miss Marie Swift, Mrs. Louis C. Mably, and Miss Beatrice Short volunteered for part time service. The interest shown and the work accomplished have been of special value to the Library.

The Government allotment for the Library W.P.A. project was renewed in June for a year. Carefully chosen assistants, now nineteen in number, clean and recondition books and pamphlet material and set up card indexes for the School and Public Relations Department. Their chief work, however, is helping to catalogue and thus make available, books, pamphlets, and visual material long in storage.

DEPARTMENT OF BUILDINGS

SELDOM in the history of the Buildings Department have there been more building activities and physical changes than took place during the past year. Outstanding are the new Allerton Wing, the new elevator in Hutchinson Wing and the alterations of the general offices and Membership Department to take care of their natural expansion, while Fullerton Hall was improved by the addition of a much needed rest room.

Considerable time was required to check the plans and specifications in detail and to follow these projects through to completion, this work being carried on in addition to the regular departmental routine and without the employment of additional help.

ALLERTON WING

Through the generosity of Robert Allerton, a fund was made available for the erection of a new Allerton Wing located in the court south of the present Hutchinson Wing and "L" galleries. During the early part of May the architects, Holabird and Root, presented a plan for a building 116 feet long by 66 feet wide with two temporary connecting passages 33 feet long by 19 feet wide which was approved by Mr. Allerton and the Trustees.

The George Fuller Company began work early in July and completed it on November 30. Interior walls, floors, heating, and lighting have been left for a later date.

PASSENGER ELEVATOR

For years the Institute staff and the Trustees have felt the need of a passenger elevator to serve Hutchinson Wing on the ground floor and the temporary galleries on the second floor (Gunsaulus Hall), but not until this year was a workable scheme presented by which this important addition could be built without seriously interfering with the present gallery arrangement. Early in April the Trustees commissioned Holabird and Root to make a study of the project and they submitted a plan which also met with the approval of the Trustees. The contract, let early in June to the Carroll Construction Company, was finished and accepted by the Institute on October 20. The entire arrangement, including the design of the elevator cab and the approach to it, have been most favorably received by the general public and staff, over 4,000 patrons using this new facility during the first month.

OFFICE CHANGES

For a long time the Trustees and the Institute staff had suffered from the congested condition of the general offices and lack of space in which to take care of the demands made upon them. On recommendation of the Building Committee and the President, the Trustees voted an appropriation permitting the general offices to expand in accordance with prepared plans and specifications. These necessitated the transfer of the Membership Department to former gallery 4, which room was divided so as to permit a small addition to the Lantern Slide Department; the remainder being divided to suit the requirements of the Membership Department. A work-room for the clerks and a Reception Room for visitors and members were provided. Considerable thought was given to the arrangement of this Reception Room, to make it both pleasant and inviting.

The space formerly occupied by the Membership Department was divided by glass partitions to accommodate the departments of Publicity, Information, the Registrar and Archives.

The approach to the general office is now through the Reception Room formerly known as corridor 19. This room has been entirely refitted with new furniture and floor covering, the wall being newly decorated. The greater part of this work was performed by our own shop force. Special mention should be made of the Carpenter Shop, Paint Shop, and the Heating and Ventilating Section for their splendid coöperation and coordination.

LIGHTS AND LIGHTING

Unfortunately our lighting circuits in the attic over the temporary galleries had become overloaded and defective. In order to safeguard the Institute from fire hazard, it was therefore deemed advisable to change this lighting load from direct to alternating current. The old, unsightly, individual switch cabinets containing the defective wiring were removed from the gallery walls and replaced by remote control pilot light system of switches located in closet space adjacent to the galleries. This system has proved most satisfactory and we feel the change has justified the expense involved.

ROOFS

Due to the fact that practically the entire roof of the Michigan Avenue Building and the Gunsaulus Hall bridge gallery are constructed of glass, its inspection and maintenance is of vital importance. This is especially true of our Michigan Avenue building which is more than forty-six years old. The past year revealed a section on its eastern slope from the center to the south that had deteriorated to such a degree that it was imperative to replace this area with a new skylight consisting of reinforcing bars and lead-coated copper sash glazed with wire glass. This is the third or fourth section replaced during the past three years. As time goes on we will inevitably be confronted with additional expense for replacing further sections in order to prevent leaks that might eventually damage our galleries and perhaps paintings exhibited on gallery walls.

RESTAURANT SECTION

During the year, 180,964 patrons were served in the cafeteria and at the soda fountain. This is a 13% increase over last year and is extremely gratifying.

SHIPPING SECTION

The Shipping Section is charged with the responsibility of receiving and shipping all works of art and such other material or equipment as may come in or go out from time to time. This section furnishes the necessary labor to install and dismantle all major exhibits. To give a better understanding of the volume of work handled by this section it might be of interest to state that during the past year there were approximately 7,000 incoming and outgoing shipments, totalling 24,193 items, averaging about 2,000 items per month for the entire year.

OUTSIDE MUSEUMS AND GALLERIES

Frequently during the year we have been consulted on every phase of museum mechanics, especially with regard to gallery lighting, sizes of museum galleries, treatment of walls and wall fabrics, toning of frames, cleaning of marble and plaster casts, design and construction of exhibition cases, etc. Due to the high standing of the Institute in the Museum field, your Superintendent was invited by the A. W. Mellon Educational and Charitable Trust to examine the plans of the new National Gallery in Washington and make recommendations concerning museum mechanics necessary for the proper functioning of a museum building.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLICITY

THE Publicity Department during 1938 had two principal aims: first, to increase local news concerning the Art Institute through all possible channels, and second, to secure greater national publicity. The first aim has been achieved by close attention to effective and complete preparation of copy sent out to the newspapers and magazines, and by the use of two sets of posters for exhibitions, one distributed by mail and the other displayed in local transportation systems. A general descriptive folder concerning the Art Institute aided in reaching visitors in the city. Greater local and national publicity was realized by definite campaigns with students receiving honors in our art schools and artists whose paintings were accepted for annual exhibitions.

During the fall a series of special pre-views of exhibitions was arranged for the Presidents of Woman's Clubs, their Art Chairmen and the Directors of Art Groups; this activity has aroused definite interest.

In order to make some of the masterpieces in our collection more accessible to the public, a series called "The Masterpiece of the Month" was initiated last April with Rembrandt's painting of "The Young Girl at the Open Half-Door" exhibited in Gallery 5 near the front entrance. At once the plan met with marked success and is providing a constant stream of publicity in local papers. It allows the visitor to spend more time enjoying and understanding thoroughly a single object, interpreted by comprehensive labels and comparative photographs.

The Department keeps a summary of all newspaper clippings and other publicity about the Art Institute. Such records permit a quantitative analysis of the response to all news releases and indicate which sources of publicity are fertile and which are barren and should be dropped.

Increasingly, Chicago firms are placing material about the Art Institute before their patrons and to them the Department is greatly indebted. Among others which have assisted in this manner are: Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co.; the Chicago, Aurora and Elgin Railroad; the Chicago Board of Trade; the Chicago Rapid Transit Co.; the Chicago Motor Coach Co.; the Chicago North Shore & Milwaukee Railroad; the Chicago Park District; the Chicago Public Library; the Illinois Central Railroad; Mandel Brothers; and Marshall Field & Co. The Federal Art Project of Illinois has kindly coöperated on posters and other material. The Works Progress Administration of Illinois, Ryerson Library, has assisted in compiling records.

REPORT OF CATALOGUES AND REPRODUCTIONS FOR 1938

CATALOGUES

THE CATALOGUE sales for the year 1938 totaled approximately $6,225.00 of which $845.45 was from the sale of Permanent Catalogues such as the Handbook of Paintings; Brief Guide to the Collections; Inness Catalogue; Eddy and Birch Bartlett Catalogues. Approximately $5,380.00 was realized from the sale of Exhibition Catalogues, such as the Forty-second Annual Exhibition by Chicago Artists; Seventeenth International Water Color Exhibition; American Painting and Sculpture Exhibition; Fifth International Exhibition of Etching and Engraving and the Exhibition of Miniature Rooms. The sale of the Catalogue of Miniature Rooms was especially outstanding with a total of $2,486.

REPRODUCTIONS

The REPRODUCTION sales were approximately $7,392.00, of which $966.32 was realized from mail orders. We have had a steady increase in out-of-town orders due to the outstanding publicity we have received in various publications throughout the country. The new illustrated price list of Catalogues and Reproductions has been well received and has been extremely helpful in increasing sales.

We sold, during the year, approximately 82,750 reproductions, post-card size, amounting to $4,367.00. Of this number the largest sale in color cards was in the Jaffé series, which amounted to 25,990 at $2,590.56; 44,859 black and white cards were sold at $1,186.12. Four-color card sales (made by Childs and the Detroit Publishing Company) were 11,808 at $590.40. The approximate sales in small color prints were 1,611 at $724.00. Large color print sales totaled 128 or $519.15. The sale of framed prints numbered 924 for $1,114.50.

During the year we added to our inventory the following large prints made by the Cuneo Press through the Chicago Daily Times:

1,000 prints of each subject were given to us,

Mount Equinox; Winter	Rockwell Kent
The Beach at Sainte-Adresse	Monet
Stowing the Sail, Bahamas	Homer
Icebound	Metcalf

500 large prints of each of the following subjects were given to us by Whitman Publishing Company, Racine, Wisconsin:

La Berceuse	Van Gogh
The Bedroom at Arles	Van Gogh

210 small prints were purchased from R. R. Donnelley and Sons Company of:

Education of Cupid Titian

(Charles H. and Mary F. S. Worcester Loan)

We have also had on sale at twenty-five cents a reproduction made by Donnelley's of Mrs. James Ward Thorne's aquatint "Kings Weston, Near Bristol" now on display in the Print Department.

The new series of thirty subjects, which Max Jaffé is printing, will be ready in the spring of 1939.

The total sales of $13,617.54 in Catalogues and Reproductions for the year of 1938 have been satisfactory. We feel confident that with improvement in business conditions sales will greatly increase. We have, at the present time, judging from observation and reports, more color reproductions of our collection of paintings than any other museum in the United States.

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF FINANCE AND OPERATION

To the President and Governing Members of the Art Institute of Chicago:

THE work of the Art Institute continues to expand from year to year. While this steady growth brings with it an increase in the expense of maintenance and operation, the Museum Budget for the year closed without a deficit.

During the year the Art Institute was unusually active in building construction and in making necessary improvements, described fully in the Superintendent's report, among which were the new Decorative Arts Galleries, a gift from Robert Allerton, a rest room in connection with Fullerton Hall, and a much needed new elevator installed in Hutchinson Wing. For many years the Art Institute has been handicapped because of a crowded condition in the general offices, the Membership room and the Lantern Slide Department. This congestion was remedied during the year, and certain sections of the sky-lighted roof, more than forty years old, were replaced; cement floors which were sinking badly were torn up and renewed, and the worn-out soda fountain was reconditioned. The expense of these improvements was provided for by gifts, additional receipts, and budget savings. The Treasurer's Report, presented to the Governing Members in their annual meeting in January, covers the financing of all these changes and improvements.

The Art Institute received during 1938 $222,346.34 in Endowment Funds, of which $214,803.70 is restricted and $7,542.64 is unrestricted. An outstanding gift of the year was received from Mrs. Erna Sawyer Goodman to establish the William Owen and Erna Sawyer Goodman Fund of $150,000.00.

Other new Endowment Funds are listed below:

George and Frieda Pick Memorial Fund	$20,000.00
Elizabeth A. Shearson Fund	5,000.00

William H. Bartels Prize Fund	535.00
Dearborn Seminary Scholarship Fund	477.00
Renaissance Scholarship Fund	275.85

Mr. Robert Allerton has again shown his deep interest in the Art Institute by a gift of $75,703.00 for the construction of the new Decorative Arts Galleries. Other cash gifts to the Museum were received from the following donors:

Mr. Russell Tyson for the purchase of a river jade bowl and other objects for the Oriental Art Department . .	$4,800.00

Scholarships and gifts presented to the School were as follows: Gracia M. F. Barnhart, $265; The Chicago Women's Ideal Club, $251; Junior League of Chicago Scholarship, $165; Dearborn Seminary Alumni Association contribution $120; Mrs. Alice H. Gregory Vacation Fund, $100; Mrs. James Ward Thorne, gift to Glee Club, $25; Delta Phi Delta Scholarship, $24; Chicago Culture Club Scholarship, $16; Chicago Society of Etchers, $10.

The Museum had an attendance of 1,030,131 during the year, and the cafeteria served 180,964 persons.

Catalogue sales for the year amounted to $6,448.91 and reproduction sales were $7,322.21.

One of the most interesting exhibitions of the year that greatly attracted the attention of the members and visitors was that of the Mrs. James Ward Thorne Miniature Rooms, which opened October 14, 1937, and closed October 2, 1938. The attendance during the exhibition was 74,289, and 11,149 catalogues were sold. Mrs. Thorne very generously contributed $1,426.48 towards a most attractive installation of the rooms and the services of an attendant.

The Membership Department reports a total membership of 14,702, and the year closed with a Life Membership Fund of $1,440,776.06.

MEMBERSHIP DEPARTMENT

BENEFACTORS AND MEMBERS

BENEFACTORS: Whenever any person shall have contributed fifty thousand dollars or more, or its equivalent, to The Art Institute of Chicago, he shall be named a Benefactor of The Art Institute, and his name shall be printed in each Annual Report under the head of Benefactors of The Art Institute, and also be placed on the Benefactors tablet in the main hall.

Living Benefactors become Honorary Governing Life Members and are henceforth exempt from dues.

HONORARY MEMBERS: Honorary Members are chosen from among persons who have rendered eminent service to the institution.

GOVERNING MEMBERS only shall have the right to vote for Trustees. The number of Governing Members shall be limited to two hundred and fifty. Each Governing Member pays one hundred dollars upon election and annual dues of twenty-five dollars.

Governing Members, upon payment of four hundred dollars, are exempt from dues and are known as GOVERNING LIFE MEMBERS. The receipts from these funds are invested, and the income only expended.

SUSTAINING MEMBERS: Sustaining Members shall be those who contribute twenty-five dollars or more annually to The Art Institute. They shall be entitled to all the privileges of Governing Members, excepting the right to vote for Trustees.

LIFE MEMBERS: Life Members, upon the payment of one hundred dollars, have all the privileges of Annual Members for life. All receipts from these memberships are invested, and the income only expended.

THE ART INSTITUTE OF CHICAGO

THE ART INSTITUTE of Chicago was incorporated May 24, 1879, for the "founding and maintenance of schools of art and design, the formation and exhibition of collections of objects of art, and the cultivation and extension of the arts of design by any appropriate means." The charter was amended, taking effect on December 1, 1925, and now reads, "for the object to found, build, maintain and operate museums of fine arts, schools and libraries of art, design, and the drama, with authority to confer degrees and grant diplomas; to build, maintain and operate theatres, lecture halls, workshops and lunch rooms in connection therewith, and to carry on appropriate activities conducive to the artistic development of the community; to form, preserve and exhibit collections of objects of art of all kinds; to cultivate and extend the arts of design and the drama by any appropriate means; to provide lectures, instruction, and entertainments including dramatic, operatic and musical performances of all kinds in furtherance of the general purposes of the Institute; to receive in trust property of all kinds and to exercise all necessary powers as trustees for such trust estates whose objects are in furtherance of the general powers of the Institute, or for the establishment or maintenance of works of art in the community."

The museum building upon the lake front, first occupied in 1893, is open to the public every week day from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Sundays from 12 to 5 p.m. Admission is free to Members and their families and to school children of Illinois at all times, and free to all upon Wednesdays, Saturdays, Sundays, and public holidays. The Ryerson and Burnham Libraries are open free (a Reader's card grants free admission on pay days) on week days from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays also from 6 to 9 p.m.

Patrons may park their cars free on Sunday afternoons in the driveway fronting the Goodman Theatre. Use the East Entrance to the Institute.

The School of the Art Institute, affording comprehensive courses in the fine and applied arts, together with the Kenneth Sawyer Goodman Memorial Theatre, is under the same roof. The latter has a separate entrance at Monroe Street and South Park Drive.

All Members are entitled, with their families and visiting friends, to the use of the Ryerson and Burnham Libraries as well as to admission to all exhibitions, receptions, public lectures, and entertainments given by The Art Institute.

Visitors desiring to see the collections of the museum under guidance may make appointments with the Department of Education.

I direct that my executors shall from my general estate pay over in convenient installments to the trustees of The Art Institute of Chicago, an Illinois corporation, such amounts as shall equal.....dollars per annum for the period from the date of my death until the....day of....., 19...., which amounts I give and bequeath to the aforesaid The Art Institute of Chicago to be received and applied by its Trustees.

The Trustees are deeply grateful to those who have already made gifts and bequests, and earnestly solicit all those wishing to aid and encourage The Art Institute in the great work which it is accomplishing with comparatively small resources, either to give or bequeath to it money or works of art of that high degree of excellence which is worthy of a great museum.
